

Essay and Discussion Prompts:

1. Henry Bemis' perfect day at the end of civilization revolved around reading.
What would your perfect, post-apocalyptic day look like? What would you find solace in and why?
2. Think of yourself as the leader of your country; however, an asteroid is going to hit the country in 3 days. Besides people, you have time to save one resource. What is it and why?